

Practical Math CURRICULUM MAP

Pleasant Hill High School		School Year: 2021-2022	Teacher: Mr. Pepper
		Content	Skills	Assessment
1st Quarter	August	Saving up for big purchases	Being able to work out a plan to save up for expensive things	See below
	September	Classified Ads	Being able to look at ads and decipher if they are a good or bad deal	See below
	October	Averaging grades	Being able to add numbers and find the average	Working together on the problems until everyone is comfortable on knowing how to find the solution
2nd Quarter	November	Eating at home vs eating out	Being able to calculate how much money can be saved by eating at home	See above
	December	Clipping coupons and looking at store flyers	Being able to look at coupons and store flyers and deciphering if you are getting a good deal	See above
	January	Unit pricing	Shopping by comparing prices of different sizes to find the best bargain will also watch videos of real people shopping and comparing prices	See above
3rd Quarter	February	Cooking for large groups	Being able to add ingredients and measurements	See above
	March	Halving a recipe	Being able to divide the ingredients and measurements	Have them try to work out the problems on their own and then go through it together.

4th Quarter	April	Gas mileage in regard to speed driven Also we will work on Khan academy Working on Mortgage rates and how to pay for a house. Check out engage New York	Being able to understand the concept that usually the faster you drive the fewer miles you can travel per gallon of gasoline.	See above
	May	How to buy a car and also how to buy and differentiate car insurance Also work on Khan academy and how to figure out what the payments are going to be on the life of the loan. Check out engage New York	Being able to understand how much money it takes and what is involved with monthly payments as far as purchasing a car or truck and buying insurance	See above